Already registered with the CRA to receive payments?

If you are already registered for CRA Direct Deposit, you don't need to register again.

If you would like to request the CERB?

If you would like to obtain the CERB benefit, you must apply for it directly at the CRA website beginning on April 6. Additional information and questions about the CERB can be found at the Government of Canada's website.

Please note, if an individual has never filed a tax return with the CRA, they are not eligible to sign up for the CRA direct deposit service through their financial institution.
